The November Purebred Arabian Online Sale, held in the late afternoon on aktem.fr, attracted strong interest from buyers, including a number of new bidders. Once again, the sale attracted an international buying audience, with buyers from the United Arab Emirates, Qatar, Oman, Morocco and France. In total, 20 horses changed hands, generating a turnover of €451,000.

Mohammed Al Subousi secures the three top prices

Highly active throughout the sale, Mohammed Al Subousi secured all three top-priced lots. AKTEM

Earlier in the sale, Mohammed Al Subousi had already secured NEUTRINO DE NACRE (Lot 11), a three-year-old colt trained by David Morisson, who finished a promising third on his latest outing at Toulouse. Purchased for €60,000, this son of Yazeed comes from the family of MAGIC PIBOUL, MADOUA DE PIBOUL, AL SAKBE, AL MOUWAFFAK, AL MOUTAWAKEL and MAHEBA DE PIBOUL.

The Emirati buyer also purchased a foal (Lot 27), a daughter of Al Mourtajez out of SEROUDA DU BREUIL, a Group 1 PA-placed mare, for €58,500. Consigned by Haras de Thouars, she descends from the distinguished family of VULCAIN DU CLOS, CHALWA DU BREUIL and MAKFOUL DU BREUIL.

Speaking after the sale, Mohammed Al Subousi commented:
"I am delighted to have been able to bid at this sale. NEUTRINO DE NACRE and PRINCE MOURTAJEZ will be heading to Dubai to join Ahmad bin Harmash's stable. The filly will remain at the stud to continue her development before travelling to Dubai to begin her racing career in two or three years' time. We are looking forward to starting the Dubai season with our two grey horses!"
