JUST KEN Joins The National Hunt 48H Sale Catalogue

The catalogue for the National Hunt 48H Sale, to be held on 13 November at Maisons-Laffitte racecourse, has been further enhanced by the addition of a promising Flat prospect as a Wild Card, JUST KEN, who won on his debut at Deauville.

On 19 October, at Deauville, a racecourse renowned for its demanding conditions, JUST KEN made a highly impressive debut, showing plenty of determination to secure victory. It was a notable first outing for this son of City Light, who races in the colours of Andrew Gorton and is trained by Tim Donworth.

JUST KEN is the second foal out of KERAVA, a daughter of Kodiac who herself made her mark at two, winning a 1,400-metre race. He comes from a high-quality family belonging to the prestigious Aga Khan bloodlines, which also produced KERATIYA, KERASONA, DARKNESS and KERAKA.

Combining an interesting pedigree with a particularly promising start to his racing career, this young colt offers an appealing profile for the future. His performances to date suggest considerable potential over distances ranging from 1,300 to 1,600 metres.

Entries for horses in training are still open.
